Eight Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection: Did it ever happen that you realised you were condemning another person for their faults and then realised that your own faults were just as many or more? It can be a common weakness to judge our neighbour while not recognising our own faults. We always think we can guide and correct people and are quick to see the flaws in others, before looking at our own shortcomings. My perspective may not be the best one; my view of myself and of the world may need correction. I pray for humility and for a deeper capacity to perceive God's presence and action around me. Lord, make me more aware of my inadequacies, so that I may become gentle in dealing with others.

Please Pray for the Sick: P J Tunney, Veronica Ugo, Lily Rahim, Patrick O'Reilly, Trisha Weldon, John Curry, Pat Hillman, Clément, Trish, Teresa and Masie. Please also pray those who have died recently and all the Souls of the faithful departed.
